

Please work to keep the air waves free so that we, citizens of the United States, can get news and views that differ from the opinions and views of federal and state governments.

During the recent war in Iraq many U.S. citizens had to turn to foreign press and radio to get information. Please don't let this process become even more serious than it is today.

Protect our rights to our air waves. Keep corporate monopoly away from the air waves.